Candidate Statement (75 words maximum)

Members seeking election are kindly requested to include details of work they wish to undertake for the Association including possible future developments.

I am highly motivated to take on the role as President as I believe to move forward the association needs positive leadership and positive direction. For the last two years as Vice President I have gained a wealth of experience through my networking skills developing valuable links with industry media and trade shows, saving members money. With my passion, diligence and enthusiasm NOEA will become an association that people wish to engage with to face the challenges ahead. I will continue to listen to your needs, leading the council and NOEA in its work and formulating policies. Collaboration is key, my commitment and knowledge will enable NOEA to grow stronger, more effective and full of opportunities. I have the significant qualities to take NOEA forward and would value your vote.
